

On the Green

EDWARD MINER GALLAUDET MEMORIAL LIBRARY
GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. II, NO. 20
MAY 23, 1973

SUMMER MATH AND SCIENCE INSTITUTES TO BE HELD AT GALLAUDET

Teachers of math and science in schools and classes for the deaf will be able to attend a five-week summer institute at Gallaudet from July 2 through August 3.

Five two-credit courses will be offered at the institute, including "Methods of Teaching Mathematics and Science to the Deaf," "Principles of Measurement for Teachers of Science," "Foundations of Mathematics for Teachers," "Mathematics and Fundamentals of General Chemistry," and "Principles of Heredity for Teachers."

The institute is sponsored at Gallaudet by the U.S. Office of Education, Bureau of Education of the Handicapped. Tuition, fees, and stipends will be provided. On-campus housing will also be available.

Applications should be made prior to May 30. For applications and additional information, contact Francis Higgins.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE: NON-FACULTY
STATIONARY ENGINEER: Physical Plant
CHIEF OF SAFETY AND SECURITY: General Services
SECRETARY: MSSD
PLANT ENGINEER: Physical Plant

POSITIONS AVAILABLE: FACULTY
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: Department of Counseling

NEWS FROM KENDALL AND MSSD

--MSSD will hold its graduation exercises on June 15 at 11 a.m. in the Auditorium.

--All Kendall School children will have an opportunity to participate in a camping experience as part of Kendall's summer program. A 400-acre camp, located near Blairstown, New Jersey, has been donated to Gallaudet College by the Order of the Golden Chain for several weeks during the summer.

--The metropolitan Washington churches of the deaf are also sponsoring a camp program for area deaf children between the ages of seven and 15. To be held in August, the camp is located in Calvert County, Maryland.

--Kip Nichols, a former Kendall student now attending MSSD, has been named First Place Winner in the 1972 Woman's Day Second Annual Money Saving Recipe Contest. Kip, who won $500 for himself, also qualified MSSD's home economics department to receive a microwave oven.

--Kendall and MSSD hosted 21 deaf students during the week of May 13 from Bermuda. The visit was a result of a trip made to the two schools last fall by Mrs. Hazel Baterbee, a teacher of the deaf in Bermuda.

DON'T DELAY

Faculty and staff interested in participating in the Summer Communication Skills Program must return their registration forms to the Dean's Office by Friday, May 25.

AROUND AND ABOUT

One hundred and six undergraduate students and 29 graduate students received their degrees yesterday at commencement exercises held at the National Shrine....Housing is needed for participants in the Graduate Training Program for Clergymen to be held at Gallaudet from June 24 - August 5.

If you know apartments or houses which will be available during that period and are suitable for a family, please contact Dan Pokorny at 937-2704....The bimonthly Foundation Grants Index compiled by the Foundation Center is available in the Development Office. This grant index is a record of currently reported foundation grants of $5,000 or more....The George Washington University Dance Program will present an experiment in theatre dance this Thursday at 1 p.m. in the auditorium of the Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School. The performance is open free to the public.

SALUTE TO BETTER HEARING MONTH

In honor of Better Hearing Month, the Department of Preventive Medicine, Washington Adventist Hospital, will present an hour-long radio broadcast devoted to programs for the deaf.

The program will be broadcast over 91.9 FM on May 30 from 8-9 p.m. Eugene Thomure and Joseph Rosenstein of MSSD will be interviewed.

AMONG OURSELVES

Doin Hicks will moderate a one-day symposium on multiple handicapped children at the Crotched Mountain School in New Hampshire. Gil Delgado as well as honorary degree recipient, Dr. Terje Basilier, will also be in attendance.... While listening to her car radio last week, Mimi Thompson heard that she was spotted by the WPGC Money Car. By calling the radio station after arriving at work and identifying herself, she won a $100 cash prize....In several weeks, Linda Darnell will begin working in the Center for Continuing Education as assistant program coordinator. Linda has been teaching hearing impaired students at Delgado Community College.

STEVE TURNER AND HEDY UDKOVICH HONORED

Steve Turner and Hedy Udkovich were named best actor and actress of the 1972-

73 Gallaudet College Theatre season for their performances in "Sign Me Alice."

A major highlight of the 14th Annual Drama Awards Night was the presentation of an Award of Excellence to the students and faculty of Gallaudet College by Amoco Oil Co. The award is in recognition of "Antigone," which qualified as one of the 10 best plays in the American College Theatre Festival.

Stevenson A. Walker, a representative of Amoco; Vera Mowry Roberts, the national president of the American Theatre Association; and Frank Cassidy, the executive producer of the American College Theatre Festival, presented engraved medallions to each member of the "Antigone" cast and crew and a commemorative plaque to the College.

Other awards given were: Best Supporting Actor, James Matthew Searles; Best Supporting Actress, Mary Ann Schoenberg; Most Promising Actor, Germaro Abenchuchan; and Most Promising Actress, Pauline Spanbauer.

Other students receiving awards were: Michael Harvester, Sylvia Mystrom, Benjamin Benson, Carlene Canady, Willis Jenkins, Wade Terry, and Reba Poole.

LEST YOU FORGET....

Memorial Day is celebrated on Monday, May 28 this year. That means a holiday folks!

KEEPING TABS ON OUR VISITORS

Looking back on the past month, we have had more than 200 visitors with us. Among them have been six administrators from the Department of Defectology in the Soviet Union; the NASHA Poster Child; and students from several schools and classes for the deaf, including Mill Neck Manor School; the American School for the Deaf; the Boston School for the Deaf; and the Litzsinger School District, St. Louis.

ON THE GREEN will be published again on June 6. Call 741 or TTY 480 with news.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy